

MARCO VENTURELLO, LAWYER

Born in Turin on April 30th, 1968, he graduated from the University of Turin Law School in 1994. During his university studies, he spent different periods abroad where he improved his knowledge of international law and of foreign languages. In particular, he participated in the European program ERASMUS at the Universität des Saarlandes in Saarbrücken (Germany), where he studied in depth the law of the European Union at the Europa Institut. In the same period, he obtained the “Diplôme Supérieur de Droit Comparé” at the Faculté Internationale de Droit Comparé of the University of Strasbourg (France), aimed at improving his knowledge of comparative law and private international law. After graduating, he attended an internship at the English Courts of Justice and performed research and educational support activity in “Comparative Law” for the University of Turin Law School.

He worked as trainee solicitor in a law firm with offices in Turin, Milan and Treviso and specialized in international commercial law, with particular reference to commercial and distribution contracts. After being admitted to the Bar of Turin in 1997, he practiced as consultant for a firm of trademarks and patent agents and consultants, which had offices in Turin, Milan, Rome and Bologna. Finally, he practiced in the intellectual property department of one of the most important English law firms at international level, which had offices in Italy in Turin, Milan and Rome. In 2002, he was mentioned by the law journal “Chambers Global – The World’s Leading Lawyers” among the lawyers dealing with intellectual property in Italy. In 2003, his name was also included in the list of the arbitrators of the Chamber of Commerce of Turin. From 2005 he practices in the law firm VENTURELLO E BOTTARINI, AVVOCATI of which he was the founder. In 2009 he was admitted to the roll of the attorneys before the Italian Supreme Court. From 2010 he has been indicated, by “Best Lawyers” guide, among the lawyers who deal with intellectual property in Italy and, from 2013, he has always been listed among “Trademarks Lawyers” and “Patents Lawyers” Italian candidates for “The International Who’s Who of Business Lawyers”, “Who’s Who legal: Italy” and “The Best Lawyers in Italy”. In 2018 he was appointed to the WIPO (World Intellectual Property Organization) Center List of Arbitrators. From 2021 it is always he was listed as one of the Italian lawyers dealing with Intellectual Property in the Lexology magazine.

He has gained significant experience in the areas of intellectual property law (both contentious and non-contentious) and contracts, national and international, with particular reference to licensing and distribution contracts.

With respect to intellectual property, contracts and international private law, he has published articles in the major Italian law journals (Giurisprudenza italiana, Contratto e impresa/Europa and Il Diritto Industriale). He contributed to the book “La responsabilità contrattuale e precontrattuale” (Contractual and precontractual liability), author Professor Monateri and he drafted the topic “Brevetti per invenzioni industriali” (Patent for industrial inventions), published in Digesto. He wrote the article “Il requisito di liceità nei marchi” (The requirement of lawfulness for trademarks) for the review Giurisprudenza Italiana, and he is co-author of the article “Libertà d’espressione e funzioni del marchio” (Freedom of expression and trademark functions) for the review Il Diritto Industriale. He contributed to the drafting of the Italian part of the book “International Licensing and Technology Transfer: Practice and Law”, London. He also contributed with the chapter “Copyright” to the guide “La Proprietà Intellettuale – uno strumento per la crescita economica nel terzo millennio” (Intellectual Property – a tool for economic growth in the third millennium) LES Italy, and to the book “Codice della proprietà industriale, la riforma 2010” (Code of industrial property, the Reformation of 2010), directed by Professor Galli; he also drafted some comments for the commentary “Codice commentato della Proprietà Industriale e Intellettuale” (Commentary of the Code of Industrial and Intellectual Property), directed by Professors Galli e Gambino. He contributed to the drafting of the Guide “Made in Italy”, realised by CCIAA of Turin, Unioncamere Piemonte and CEIP (Centro Estero per l’Internazionalizzazione del Piemonte). He finally wrote the comment to the article of the Italian Civil code on “Designs and Models” for the commentary “Codice civile commentato” (Commentary of the civil code), directed by Professors Alpa and Mariconda, as well as an article in German language titled “Der Gewerbliche Rechtsschutz im Modenbereich” for “Branchenprofil Italien: Mode & Textilien”, of General Consulate of Austria in Milan. He has contributed to the publications “Reference scenario of the controversies in the field of trade secrets in the UE States Members” for EUIPO (European Union Intellectual Property Office) and “The new law of know-how and trade secrets - Systematic first reading of the changes introduced by Legislative Decree no. 11 May 2018, n. 63” edited by Professor Galli.

He participated to the Task Force in the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) of Paris, directed by Professor Bortolotti, concerning the drafting of a model contract on technology transfer and of a model contract of trademark licensing.
